MUMBAI: Pipe manufacturer Welspun Gujarat Stahl Rohren on Monday said it has appointed Lauri Antero Malkki as its chief executive office (CEO).

Malkki, who was earlier with Europipe GmbH in Germany as the managing director, will be based at Welspun's head office in Mumbai, the company said in a filing to the National Stock Exchange.

"I will be delighted to see Welspun fulfill its dream to be the most respected and one of the largest company in the world," Malkki said after his appointment.
